

REFUGEE YOUTHS IN JUAREZ JAIL

Sons of Prominent Chihuahua Families Jeer at the Guards; Are Arrested.

Juan Creel, Jr., son of John A. Creel, a former Chihuahua banker; Enrique Legueta, grandson of Gen. Luis Terrazas; Francisco Larrida, son of the president of the bank of Laguna, at Torreon, and one other unidentified young man, were arrested in Juarez Sunday afternoon and were released early this afternoon. The young men returned to El Paso immediately following their release.

Conflicting reports reached El Paso as to the cause for the arrest of the young men. An attack on Gen. Gavira's headquarters stated that one of the young men was intoxicated, but that the principal reason for the arrest of the four was their claim that they were connected with the "Colorado" faction, an enemy of the de facto government.

The four young men left El Paso Sunday afternoon to attend the band concert at Juarez, said Juan A. Creel. "I have received the report from authentic sources that the boys were taken off a street car in front of the customs house."

Another report was that the young men assaulted guards in front of the customs house.

Juan Creel, Jr., is also a nephew of former ambassador to the United States Enrique C. Creel.

SIX MEN GET SENTENCES IN STATE PENITENTIARY

Six men were sentenced to terms in the state penitentiary Saturday by special judge W. D. Howe, in the 25th district court, just before that official turned the affairs of the court back to judge Dan M. Jackson, who had returned from San Antonio. The men sentenced were: Roman Gutierrez and Emeterio Garcia, charged with theft of over $10 and receiving stolen property; two young men, (names withheld), charged with murder; three young men, charged with theft of over $10 and receiving stolen property; two young men, charged with theft of over $10 and receiving stolen property. All the men were tried last week. They are held in the county jail for the penitentiary officers.

A LOGICAL QUESTION

"Stranger," exclaimed a woman as she rushed up to the policeman in a department store, "I am looking for a husband a short, thin man with a mustache, who is very smart, perhaps you had better see both eyes."

SALAZAR TO HUNT JOB IN MEXICO

Quartet of "Revolutionists" Get Safe Conduct Papers From Gavira.

Jose Luis Salazar, revolutionary leader in several campaigns in the state of Chihuahua against Madero, Villa and Carranza, will go to the interior of the southern country to find work, was the statement in Juarez Sunday when the insurgent chief came into town from Guzman station, with his three hungry followers, and "safe conduct" documents were given the quartet, so that they could return to their homes and civil life. Following Salazar's surrender at Guzman Friday, he and his men were given amnesty upon their agreement to live as private citizens in Mexico and keep out of politics.

There was nothing to indicate Salazar's rank above his followers, except his superior physique and more intelligent and expressive face. Their clothing was equally worn and tattered. The "army" who were of the poor laborer type, of unrefined Indian blood, were overhauled and searched.

Before Salazar crossed the river into Chihuahua a few weeks after the Columbus raid, he left behind him in El Paso a bombastic manifesto, declaring his intention of starting another revolution, but the reinforcements he expected to join him in the uprising failed to appear. The little band has been roaming across northern Chihuahua for several weeks, from east to west.

Salazar is said to have told Gen. Gavira that he left El Paso because he feared arrest here.

He declared that he had committed no outrages against property or persons in Mexico.

GAVIRA WILL GO TO SEE PERSHING AT CASAS GRANDES

Gen. Gabriel Gavira, zone commander of Mexican troops in Juarez, said Monday morning that he intended to leave his headquarters within a few days for Casas Grandes, Chih., for the purpose of holding a personal conference with Gen. John J. Pershing, commander of the United States punitive expedition. The conference will deal with subjects relative to the movements of Carranza troops from the east and south into the region now being patrolled by Gen. Pershing's forces.

The Juarez commander said he had concluded that a personal talk in the field with Gen. Pershing would insure satisfactory telegraphic communication had been.

"Rather surprising to a beautiful beauty."

"How new?"

"Your engaged girl are on our party line and you can't go to the telephone without somebody hearing you a kiss."

SAYS MEXICANS MUST REGISTER

Garcia Reminds Countrymen of Duty; No Charge; Need Documents.

Mexican consul Andres G. Garcia is circulating a proclamation calling on all Mexican citizens, of whatever political faith, to register at his office, or at the consular offices nearest to their places of residence. Similar requests have been made by American consuls throughout Mexico during the revolutionary period. The Mexican proclamation reads as follows:

By order of the decree in circular of May 15, Mexican citizens of any and all political creeds are reminded that they should register themselves in the Mexican consulates of the jurisdiction where they reside, in order that upon occasion arising the said consulate may be in a position to help them or extend them protection. Citizens are reminded, furthermore, that such registration should be renewed every two years and that it is free of charge. The parties desiring registration should present to the consulate documentary evidence of the fact of Mexican citizenship or satisfactory references for the same purpose.

N. M. CAMPAIGNS FOR 300 TROOPS

Albuquerque, N. M., May 29.—To avert a threatened merging of New Mexico guards now on the border with organizations from elsewhere, a citizens' committee today inaugurated urgent steps to obtain the 300 recruits needed to make up a full New Mexico regiment.

A mass meeting and parade will be held here tonight to obtain recruits. Telegrams have been sent to leading citizens in other parts of the state explaining the situation and urging that they hold similar meetings at once.

ARMY HOSPITAL AT FORT BLISS HAS 238 PATIENTS

There are 238 patients in the United States army base hospital at Fort Bliss, according to Monday morning's report. Very few of the men are suffering from gunshot wounds. The majority are suffering from diseases of which sick and wounded soldiers are sent to Fort Bliss from the G. H. & S. A. railway high bridge across the Pecos river in Val Verde county to Douglas, Arizona.

ARMY BOARDS' FINDINGS NOT MADE PUBLIC YET

No reports of the boards of inquiries appointed by Gen. George Bell, Jr., district patrol commander of the United States army, to investigate the causes of the two recent fires at Fort Bliss and the killing of Sgt. Harry Furness, 23d infantry on the "blunder" have been made public. Southern division headquarters at San Antonio, according to announcement given at district headquarters at Fort Bliss Monday.

TO PAVE ALAMEDA IN 30 DAYS, SAYS RAND

The paving of Alameda avenue will start at once and will probably be completed in 30 days, according to W. J. Rand, of the El Paso Bitulithic company, who has secured all signatures to the contract and is now ready with his plans.

Alameda avenue will be paved from Texas street to Boone avenue. The county of El Paso will pay one-half of the cost assessed against property owners, and the outlay will be about $30,000.

In connection with this work it is announced that the Texas street paving will be extended two blocks to a connection with Piedras street. This will obviate the necessity of drivers turning onto Alameda avenue in order to reach Piedras, in going from the city to the section north of the tracks.

ARIZONANS IN CITY

Ralph H. Cameron, former delegate to congress from Arizona, was in El Paso Sunday en route to Chicago to attend the Republican national convention. Robert Adams Kirk, former assistant secretary of the territory of Arizona, accompanied Mr. Cameron.

WOMAN SO WEAK COULD NOT SLEEP

Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

North Oxford, Mass.—"I had lost three children and I was all run down and so weak I could not sleep at night. My eyesight would leave me and everything I ate upset my stomach. I was very nervous and if I would start to sleep I would have to stop and lie down before I could finish. I was looking over the paper one day and read of a woman who felt as I did and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I took it too. Now I am proud to tell you I am feeling fine and have given birth to a boy baby. He is my 'Pinkham' baby. I keep a bottle of Compound in my house always."

Mrs. PETER MARCO, Box 64, North Oxford, Mass.

Sleeplessness, indigestion, weakness, and nervousness are symptoms which indicate a lowered vitality of the female organism, and the tonic, strengthening properties of the good old fashioned roots and herbs, contained in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, are just what is needed by every woman who is in Mrs. Marco's condition.

EL PASO MILITIA COMPANY REACHES MARATHON BOUND FOR TERLINGUA.

By JOHN H. REGAN.

Marathon, Texas, May 29.—Company K, Fourth Texas Infantry, reached here during the night bound for Terlingua, in the "Big Bend" country, to guard that quicksilver mining camp from the possibility of Mexican raids.

All of the Fourth broke camp at San Antonio but only the "milk" battalion came on our train. The other two battalions preceded several hours, some going to the Brownsville country and others under instruction to guard bridges and vital railway points between El Paso and San Antonio. Our ranks have been slightly reduced by transfers, promotions and sickness. Sergeant Louis Alexander was detached from the Fourth, while several of our men have been assigned to the machine gun company and the pack train. The reduction in number is slight, as we still have 54 men and three commissioned officers on train.

Four Companies on Train. Ahead of us in our train were the boys of company I, Mineral Wells; back of us and completing our battalion were the volunteers of L and M. Inasmuch as the four letters of our battalion spell the word "milk" we use it as a title, though the title is somewhat humorous. The other reason was our fondness for the milkmen who lined the long avenue of officers' tents each meal hour.

Early in our training we learned that a pint of milk was about as refreshing and nutritious as anything we could buy, and as long as our money lasted, we indulged in the rural pursuit of "hitting" the bottle whenever we could. We do not know where we are going with any definiteness. Some say we have an 85 mile hike before us. Others hold that we will go to the border on trucks.

Our equipment weighs 65 pounds per man, almost the weight of a sweet young girl. We could carry the girl for 35 miles but the equipment is another matter. However, Lieut. Elliott says he won't hike us more than 25 miles in one day. That will be enough. In the same breath, Capt. Jenkins says there will be an ambulance wagon in the rear. Both views are encouraging.

The First Real Test

Seriously speaking, we are facing the first real test of courage that has been imposed upon us yet, for the Big Bend country is no child's play and we know it. We have the best of rifles, the most complete equipment, and, generally speaking, our men are young and strong. Already I have written of the morale and general daring of our men. I cannot enlarge upon it now. We are brown and red and husky. Everywhere we have been received with a singular good will and now that we have the goggles sent by the suffrage women of El Paso, we were heralded as the El Paso bunch wherever we marched or walked.

We are grateful to the women of El Paso for their oils and powders and goggles. Already many of these articles are in use and now that field work is at hand, will be more in use all of the time.

Joy in Service

There is a joy and a strange, undefinable enthusiasm about all this business of the military. Our throats became filled when the band played "Dixie" as the first of our bunch moved forward.

We know in a measure that we are offering up a big and fine service to a people who have been long asleep on patriotic things, yet we believe in these people and ourselves. Somewhat perturbed, we are happy.

EL PASO ARMY DEPOT TO SEND SUPPLIES TO CO. K

Company K, of the Texas national guard, from El Paso, will receive its provisions and additional equipment from the depot quartermaster in this city. The district covered from the local army depot stretched from the high bridge of the G. H. & S. A. Railway over the Pecos to Yuma, Arizona.

COMPANY M, 4TH TEXAS INFANTRY AT ALPINE

Alpine, Texas, May 29.—Company M, Fourth Texas Infantry, arrived at Alpine Sunday and is en route to the east of town, with a small detail of the troops of the Sixth United States cavalry, now on border duty.

CARRANZA ENVOY ARRIVES; NO NOTE

Issue such decrees that they would be able to enforce them, but when nothing was done by our government to secure their respect, these edicts have been made more stringent each day until now our property is threatened with confiscation, and in some cases has been actually confiscated, and our personal liberty is menaced.

Can't Buy Or Lease

"A military decree was issued several months ago providing that lands might not be leased in the state of Veracruz for oil purposes, without the consent of the state government, and this decree has been modified until now no foreigner is permitted to acquire leases, real estate or assignments of leases, in this state."

The boy's love for the daughter of his foster father's enemy, a so-called "reformer," furnishes a complication and a striking climax. The whole production is filled with human interest, and is one of the strongest features of the season. "It's a dime all the time."

"THE IRON HAND"

A tremendous story—red-blooded vicarious with Robert Bonworth in some remarkable characterizations will be seen at the Garden tonight, in the opening he is a ward boss who refuses to bow to the will of a big politician. The politician "frames" him and sends him up the river. Later he gets in line and becomes a powerful and wealthy political leader. He has reared his own son of a former crook associate and is broken hearted when the boy refuses his assistance with the remark that his money is "fainted."

"THE IRON HAND"

The artful devices of the fake fortune tellers and palmists are cleverly exposed in the Jesse L. Lasky production of "The Iron Hand." "Dollie Hubbard," in which Blanche Sweet, the beautiful and distinguished photoplay favorite, will be seen at the Alhambra today. As the Swedish maid of all work in a college boarding house, she suddenly becomes wealthy and is entangled in the toils of a band of crooks who attempt to blind her of her newly acquired fortune. How she purchases a husband to save him from ruin and how he frees her from the snare of the crooks goes to make up a story gripping in its situations and unusual in its themes. The Lasky company has surrounded Miss Sweet with a cast of unusual excellence, including Theodore Roberts, Tom Forman, Jane Wolff and others.—Advt.

THE ENIGMA

Tom Moore and Anna Nilsson will be featured tomorrow in "The Enigma," a most superb two-act drama and a subject of exceptional interest. "Hett and Jeff" will also be on the program. Mme. Olga Petrova in "Playing With Fire" will be here Friday.—Advertisement.
